If you do give us an authorization, you may revoke it at any time by submitting a written revocation to our Privacy Officer and we will no longer disclose Protected Health Information under the authorization. But any disclosure that we made in reliance on your authorization before you revoked it will not be affected by the revocation.

Your Rights.

You have the following rights regarding Health Information we have about you:

Right to Inspect and Obtain a Copy of Your Medical Records. You can ask to see or get an electronic copy of your medical record or other health information we have about you. If your Protected Health Information is maintained in an electronic format, you have the right to request that an electronic copy of your records be given to you or transmitted to another individual or entity. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Right to Correct Your Medical Records. You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. We may also say “no” to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days. To request an amendment, you must make your request, in writing, to our Privacy Officer.

Right to an Account of Disclosures. You can ask us for a list (accounting) of the times we have shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with and why. We will include all the disclosures except those about treatment, payment and health care operations, and certain other disclosures. We will provide one accounting per year for free. There will be a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another accounting within the 12 month period. To request an accounting of disclosures, you must make your request, in writing, to our Privacy Officer.

Right to Limit Information We Share. You have the right to ask us not to use or share certain Health Information for treatment, payment, or health care operations. We are required to agree to your request, unless it would affect your care. If you pay for services out-of-pocket in full, for a specific item or service, you can ask that your Protected Health Information is not shared with your health insurer for the purposes of payment. We will say yes unless a law requires us to share that information.

Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. You must make your request in writing to our Privacy Officer. We will say yes to all reasonable requests.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have right to a paper copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice. To obtain a paper copy, contact our Privacy Officer.
